

When providing advice, BMC Financial Planning Limited considers the adverse impact of investment decisions on suitability. As part of our research and assessment of products, BMC Financial Planning Limited will examine the Product Providers literature to compare financial products and to make informed investment decisions about ESG products. BMC Financial Planning Limited will at all times act in the client's best interests and keep clients informed accordingly. The consideration of sustainability risks can impact on the returns of financial products.